

Congressman Jim Costa will speak at the First Annual Multi Cultural Youth Conference on Friday, October 14, 2005 in Fresno, California. The conference organizers hope to foster racial and ethnic sensitivity among students and will host a variety of workshops throughout the day. Following his remarks, Representative Costa will be available for comment on the many things happening in Congress as they relate to the 20th Congressional District, such as the Avian Flu Epidemic and precautionary steps being taken to prevent the catastrophic effects of natural disasters.

When: Friday, October 14, 2005

Time: 9:30 am

Place: Ernest E. Valdez Exhibit Hall
